You acknowledge that, although Agropur has no obligation to monitor your access to or use of the Website, it has the right to do so for the purpose of operating the Website, to ensure your compliance with this Contract, or to comply with applicable law or the orders or requirements of a court, administrative agency, or other government body.

5. Third Party Information and Hyperlinks

Although Agropur monitors the information contained in the Website, some of the information is supplied by independent third parties. While Agropur makes every effort to ensure the accuracy of all information contained in the Website, Agropur makes no warranty as to the accuracy of any such information.

The Website contains links that will let you access other websites. These other sites are not under the control of Agropur, the links thereto being provided for convenience only, and Agropur does not endorse any of these other websites. Agropur assumes no responsibility or liability whatsoever for any material that may reside in any other websites accessed through this Website or any other Agropur's websites, nor does Agropur make any representation whatsoever regarding the quality of any product or service offered on any such other Agropur's websites.

Agropur assumes no liability of any nature and offers no warranty of accuracy, security or else in regards to the contents (including opinions) provided by the public and does not endorse such contents.

6. Anonymous Information Gathered through the Website

Agropur gathers anonymous information respecting use of its Website. Consequently, Agropur uses technology to know whether the pages of its Website have been consulted by visitors and to compile statistics on them and their use of the Website. This information is gathered by means of an analytical platform (such as Google Analytics), log files, and cookies.

Agropur also uses technology to determine how often hyperlinks are used and to determine which pages of the Website its visitors choose to consult.

This anonymous information is gathered in such a way that Agropur is unable to identify you.

Agropur posts advertisements based on areas of interest on sites owned or operated by Agropur as well as independent sites using the anonymous information gathered when you consult the Website. The advertising campaigns based on areas of interest that are sometimes referred to as personalized or targeted advertising campaigns are posted based on the anonymous information gleaned from your activities on the Website and any sites you may have visited that had content or advertising campaigns from Agropur.

Like other advertising networks online, Agropur uses cookies, web beacons (also known as web bugs) and other technologies (collectively, the "cookies"). Cookies allow us to determine which advertisements you see, what advertisements you click on and other things you do when you consult our Website. This allows us to offer you more useful and relevant advertising. For example, if Agropur knows what advertising is presented to you, Agropur can avoid showing you the same ones repeatedly. Agropur does not connect your activities on independent websites to your identity when Agropur offers you advertisements based on areas of interest.

Advertisers or advertising companies working on their behalf sometimes use technology to send the advertising campaigns that appear on our websites directly through your web browser. They automatically obtain your IP address when that happens. They can also use cookies to measure the efficiency of their advertising campaigns and to personalize advertising content. Agropur has no access to or control over these cookies or other functions that advertisers or third party websites might use.

Generally, you may choose not to receive personalized advertising campaigns from third party advertisers and advertising networks that are members of the Network Advertising Initiative (NAI) or that subscribe to the Canadian Self-Regulatory Principles for Online Behavioural Advertising by visiting the opt-out page of the websites of the NAI and the Digital Advertising Alliance (DAA). You can also disable Google Analytics by opting out of advertisements and by customizing the advertisements displayed on the Google Display network by editing the page Ads Settings (link: <https://www.google.com/settings/ads>).

7. Solicitation

Providing Agropur with your email address or telephone number indicates that you consent to Agropur contacting you by phone or email. This consent authorizes Agropur to send you any information regarding the Website, to inform you of other services, products and opportunities that may interest you, and to get your opinion on the quality of the Website of Agropur.

If you no longer wish to be contacted by email, you may send a written request to Agropur at the following address:

9. Limitation of Liability

To the full extent allowed by applicable law, in no event shall Agropur, its divisions, affiliates, subsidiaries, suppliers, partners, licensors, and each of their respective directors, officers, employees, members, consultants, agents and suppliers have any liability, whether based in contract or tort (including negligence) or strict liability, for incidental (including legal fees), direct, consequential, special, or punitive damages of any kind, or for loss of revenue or profits, loss of business, loss or corruption of, or

10. Indemnification

You agree to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless Agropur, its divisions, affiliates, subsidiaries, suppliers, partners, licensors, and each of their respective directors, officers, affiliates, employees and members, from and against any claims, liabilities, damages, losses, and expenses, including, without limitation, reasonable legal and accounting fees, that are in any way connected with your access to or use of the Website.

11. Termination

Agropur may terminate this Contract and cancel your access to the Website at any time. Agropur undertakes to provide you with reasonable prior notice of this termination unless such termination is caused by your failure to comply with this Contract or the law.

12. Applicable law

This Contract shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Quebec and the federal laws of Canada applicable therein without giving effect to any principles of conflicts of laws. The courts of the Province of Quebec shall have exclusive jurisdiction over all disputes. The parties hereby irrevocably submit to the jurisdiction of the courts of the district of Montreal, Province of Quebec.

13. Severability

Should a particular provision of this Contract be held to be invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, such provision shall be deemed severed from this Contract and shall not affect the validity of this Contract as a whole.

14. Entire Agreement

These Terms of Use constitute the complete and entire agreement between the parties as to the use of the Website and supersede any prior agreement, whether written or oral.

15. No Waiver

Agropur will not be considered to have waived any of its rights or remedies described in these Terms unless the waiver is in writing and signed by Agropur. No delay or omission by Agropur in exercising its rights or remedies will impair or be construed as a waiver of its right to enforce such rights or remedies at any time.

16. Enforceability

This Contract shall be binding upon, enuring to the benefit of, and enforceable by and against each of the parties and their respective successors and assigns. Agropur shall be allowed to assign this Contract to any third party without requiring your consent.
